Abstracts

The ready meals category in Finland is continuing to shake off the stigma of being unhealthy and a bad dietary choice. In fact, ready meals is doing very well in the market and seeing regular product launches and improved recipes, as more Finnish consumers reach for such products in order to make their meal preparations obsolete or, at least, faster. For manufacturers, being in direct contact with consumers, monitoring the demand and prevailing trends, is imperative. For example, Kokkikartano ca...
