Abstracts

Meals and soups declined in volume terms in 2023 following a strong negative decline in 2022. This remains a relatively niche category in Nigeria and is widely considered non-essential. Consequently, as consumers focused on essentials and sought to cut spending in a challenging economic environment, demand declined. Nevertheless, as the income base for these categories is comprised of fairly higher income consumers, the rate of decline was not terribly strong, despite sharp increases in unit pri...
