Abstracts

Meals and soups recorded a relatively robust sales performance during 2023 as retail volume sales increased across all categories. This can be partly seen as the natural response to the dramatic decline seen in demand for meals and soups in the immediate aftermath of the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine during 2022 and partly as the result of consumers stocking up on products that can be prepared easily and quickly in the event of an emergency. With ongoing armed conflict presenting nume...
