Abstracts

Ready meals is seeing healthy retail sales in both volume and value terms. Overall, sales are being driven by consumers' demand for convenience, as people have returned to their busy lifestyles – especially so in the large cities – whereby they have less time to cook from scratch. Additionally, in urban areas, consumers often live in small apartments which have limited kitchen spaces, thus options such as ready meals (and sweet spreads) are appealing. Ready meals are also seeing a degree of expa...
