Abstracts

The COVID-19 pandemic provided a significant boost to volume sales of meals and soups in Sweden, as consumers remained within their homes for fear of contracting the disease. Meals and soups categories such as ready meals, frozen pizza, meal kits, and frozen soup provided a convenient and easy meal option for consumers who were growing weary of home cooking. In 2022, however, consumers more or less returned to their normal, busy lives, and began going on holiday once more, which drastically redu...
