Abstracts

Total meals and soups packaging saw a second year of decline in 2022, in a rebound after witnessing exceptional growth in the first year of the pandemic in 2020, although volumes remained higher than the pre-pandemic level. Although pack types such as folding cartons and metal food cans were popular for meals and soups packaging in the US, unlike these pack types, thin wall plastic containers witnessed a gain in packaging volumes and pack type share in 2022. This can be attributed to the fact th...
