Abstracts

Meat saw steady growth in retail volume terms in 2023, continuing the pattern seen in 2022. In 2022 meat producers were hit by inflationary pressures as the cost of essential raw materials such as grain and fuel rose sharply, in large part due to the impact of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. These two countries account for a third of the world's supply of grain and therefore with the war disrupting the supply chain this put significant pressure on the price of animal feed. With production costs ri...
