Abstracts

The poor economic conditions experienced in Spain are clearly affecting sales of medicated skin care as they did the rest of Spanish consumer health. Moreover in Spain, in 2011 the number of families with all their members unemployed reached 1,386,000. This fact placed even more pressure on the family budget as traditionally it has been the family network that has absorbed impact of unemployment distress in Spain, as although one member may be unemployed the economic needs of the family unit...
