Abstracts

The megabrands are the top 100 fmcg brands measured by retail sales value. While a number of the major names have maintained their rankings for some time, the balance across the list is shifting. Consumer attitudes to health, premiumisation and changes in how consumers research and shop online are having a profound impact. In addition, the importance of different regions of the world has changed for many megabrands, and many have faced the question of where best to focus resources.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow
