Abstracts

Asia Pacific is currently behind Western Europe, North America and Latin America in terms of men's grooming value sales, but its fastest growth rate over 2011-2016 and the lowest per-capita spend globally explains that many countries in the region hold ample room for growth. With the sheer size of its male customer base, rapid economic development, increasing spending power, as well as deepening interest in grooming driven by high mobile penetration and exposure to social media, Asia Pacific pre...
