Abstracts

Across the region, difficult economic conditions have impacted spending on non-essential and luxury items such as men's grooming and fragrances. However, there are encouraging signs that men are prepared to spend more time and money on their appearances and this is reflected in a proliferation of men's grooming products in some countries. The region has one of the largest unmet growth potentials globally and is expected to see notable growth over the forecast period.

Euromonitor International's Men's Grooming in the Middle East and Africa global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.

Product coverage: Baby and Child-specific Products, Bath and Shower, Colour Cosmetics, Deodorants, Depilatories, Fragrances, Hair Care, Mass Beauty and Personal Care, Men's Grooming, Oral Care, Oral Care Excl Power Toothbrushes, Premium Beauty and Personal Care, Prestige Beauty and Personal Care, Skin Care, Sun Care.
