Abstracts

Men's shaving is not as strong in South Korea compared to other developed countries. Especially for post-shave products, which are not considered as a necessity for male consumers in South Korea as many feel post-shave products can be too strong and may irritate sensitive skin. Similarly, men's pre-shave does not have a direct correlation with men's razors and blades, as the former can be replaced by other alternatives such as facial foam cleansers. Razors and blades are maintaining steady growth...
