Abstracts

Men's grooming strengthened in Mexico in 2023, with volume sales returning to positive figures after the slumps seen over the previous years. However, the category continues to face certain challenges. Men's skin care still has a relatively low penetration due to perceptions around masculinity within the country, which are limiting usage. While there is a growing customer base for men's grooming products in beauty and personal care, the industry continues to put efforts into redefining the conce...
