Abstracts

In 2023, menstrual care in Morocco continued to show double-digit retail value growth, with positive retail volume sales. Ongoing growth was driven by changes in perception and growing awareness of menstrual care, alongside the expanding coverage of products. Moreover, the number of 10-54-year-old menstruating females is on the rise, with rising celibacy rates and use of contraception contributing to growth. However, unit prices saw a slight increase due to the global inflation of raw materials,...
