Abstracts

Fashion styles and workplace dress codes for men in Argentina have been becoming more casual for several years. This trend has recently been reinforced by changes brought about by COVID-19, most notably the wider adoption of remote/hybrid work arrangements. As a result, volume sales of men's suits remain well below pre-pandemic levels, and are unlikely to ever return to historical norms. Many men in the country now wear only this type of apparel on specific occasions, such as when attending wedd...
