Abstracts

After two years of robust growth, menswear is anticipated to experience a slowdown in 2023. The category's limited growth is attributable to a challenging economic environment characterised by a sustained increase in interest rates, spanning from April 2022 to June 2023. High inflation during this period has contributed to a notable reduction in the disposable income of households, prompting consumers to curtail spending, particularly in non-essential categories like apparel and footwear. The on...
