Abstracts

While menswear in Taiwan is poised to record an improved performance in total volume sales terms in 2023, growth has been tempered by changes in consumer behaviour. Demand is now stabilising in the wake of the rapid rebound facilitated by the lifting of pandemic-related restrictions in 2022, with the tendency towards “revenge spending” very much in retreat. Indeed, most people have become more cautious in their discretionary spending decisions as the general cost of living has increased substant...
