Abstracts

Menswear is projected to see slower retail volume and current value growth than womenswear over 2023. There tended to be a higher level of price-sensitivity amongst men in Turkey, which limited their frequency of shopping for apparel during the period of macroeconomic deterioration and political uncertainty towards the end of the review period. Retail volume sales of menswear are set to register a double-digit increase over 2023, but remain below the 2019 pre-pandemic level. The lifting of Coron...
