Abstracts

Flat economic performance in Western European markets impacts negatively on men's grooming, still embedded in price competition and stagnation. Consumers, less loyal than ever, appear decided to turn to cheaper alternatives for products they increasingly consider as staples. Exceptions exist however, most notably in men's toiletries where product lines are getting more sophisticated, to fit renewing consumers' tastes and where growth opportunities are still to be found.

Euromonitor International's Men's Grooming in Western Europe global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.

Product coverage: Baby and Child-specific Products, Bath and Shower, Colour Cosmetics, Deodorants, Depilatories, Fragrances, Hair Care, Mass Beauty and Personal Care, Men's Grooming, Oral Care, Oral Care Excl Power Toothbrushes, Premium Beauty and Personal Care, Prestige Beauty and Personal Care, Skin Care, Sun Care.
