Abstracts

In 2019, automotive production continued shrinking, dragging down demand for metal products. Contracting domestic demand and slow exports of motor vehicles and their parts dragged down the industry's performance during the year. According to the International Organisation of Motor Vehicle Manufacturers (OICA), in 2019, the UK produced one million cars, recording a 14% decline over the previous year. Moreover, due to Brexit-related uncertainties, car manufacturers continue relocating their manufa...
