Abstracts

In 2010-2011 there was a decrease in the number of orders for new and current collections, which translated into the Group's deteriorating sales results. Mewa's business activity is focused on recovering from the economic downturn, from which the company suffered. In particular, the business will be continued in order to rebuild equity capital, to cover losses and to make a profit. The company will aim to increase demand and interest in the products offered by the company. The company is...
