Abstracts

Movenpick houses an in-house bar with the primary purpose of servicing guests staying at the hotel and the people who visit them. The hotel hosts the highest number of foreign guests amongst all the other hotels in Pakistan and it aims to fulfil all of their comfort requirements including food and drinks. The bar and its products are however not communicated externally due to strict laws in the country. While there are no plans to expand or open up more shops because the facility is meant for th...
