Abstracts

Retail volume sales of microwaves fell in 2023. Sales volumes have retreated to more normalised levels following the highs induced by the COVID-19 crisis, which brought an increased focus on the domestic environment and a shift towards cooking at home. As the threat from COVID-19 waned, households shifted their spending away from the home to activities that were curtailed and restricted by the pandemic, such as experiences, services, and travel. The challenging economic environment also had a da...
