Retail volume sales of microwaves crunched by 1% in 2016, continuing the decreasing trend started in 2012. Prior to the review period, microwaves registered fast-paced growth, being rapidly embraced by Romanians for whom time had become an increasingly scarce resource. Even though this product fits the increasingly hectic lifestyle of consumers, it is gradually losing share due to the competition from other appliances.

Euromonitor International's Microwaves in Romania report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2011-2015, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they new product developments, format trends or distribution issues. Forecasts to 2020 illustrate how the market is set to change.
