Abstracts

Mixed retailers registered strong rebound after outlet closures during the 2020 lockdowns. With stores operating at normal capacity, current values sales increased in both department stores and variety stores. Department stores suffered more from the lockdowns in 2020 than variety stores. All the same, variety stores registered higher growth in 2021. However, value sales were still lower for both department and variety stores than before the onset of COVID-19, as the pandemic still disrupted soc...
