Abstracts

The company is focused on continuing its strong portfolio and positioning of running related sportswear in the Japanese market. As a way to position itself as a leader in running performance, Mizuno sponsors several large marathons in Japan and will continue to do so. With the company's golf-related business seeing a decline, the company is seeking to boost its lifestyle business as a way to offset a declining golfing user base to boost sales. Moving forward the company's "Make It Happen"
