Abstracts

Mobile e-commerce sales remained popular in 2021 as local consumers faced further notable COVID-19 restrictions, particularly at the start of the year when a strict lockdown was imposed and non-essential retail stores were closed. The use of mobile apps to engage with customers developed further in 2021. For instance, Dunnes Stores launched a new app in May 2021, which can be used to store vouchers, view offers and browse products.
