Abstracts

Having increased by close to half during 2020, mobile e-commerce (goods) posted a modest decline in 2021. With many physical stores closed for several months due to lockdown measures, a growing number of consumers used smartphone apps to shop and make payments during 2020. While cash on delivery remains the most popular payment option for e-commerce, this is beginning to change. This is also due in part to the pandemic, as consumers seek to reduce the risk of contagion by avoiding physical conta...
