Abstracts

Huge growth was recorded in mobile e-commerce in Brazil during 2020 and the main reason was the restrictions placed on the ability of Brazilians to go shopping in stores for much of the year. With non-retail stores closed due to COVID-19 quarantine restrictions and in light of the strict approach taken to social distancing and home seclusion during the year, there were ideal preconditions for strong growth in m-commerce during the year. Even though grocery stores were allowed to remain open thro...

Euromonitor International's Mobile E-Commerce in Brazil report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.
