Abstracts

E-commerce was a saving grace for retailers during the Coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis in 2020, as non-essential stores closed and even essential outlets witnessed limitations on capacity, sanitisation and social distancing regulations and long queues for consumers. In order to provide customers with the best possible experience, players have introduced or developed mobile platforms. While this predates COVID-19, as smartphones became increasingly common and consumers started to use them for shopp...

Euromonitor International's Mobile E-Commerce in Chile report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
