Abstracts

The pandemic boosted value sales through mobile e-commerce in 2020. The growth in purchases through mobile e-commerce and applications was visible across all product areas but especially significant in food and drink. The pandemic encouraged Lithuanians to rely more on mobile e-commerce, as they sought to avoid crowded stores and risking personal contact.

Euromonitor International's Mobile E-Commerce in Lithuania report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
