Abstracts

Mobile devices are now an integral part of the everyday lives of most Canadian consumers. More than half of Canadians have already adopted smartphones, with the number still rising. The daily average time spent on mobile devices has also been increasing, as consumers increasingly rely on their connected smartphones and tablets. Therefore, retailers are investing heavily in mobile advertising to increase brand awareness. Mobile advertising has grown significantly and influences consumers' purchases...

Euromonitor International's Mobile Internet Retailing in Canada report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
