Abstracts

Nampak Plastics will continue to focus on minimising costs in the UK in the forecast period. In order to expand its operations it will seek to open new in-plant production units at dairies or juice processing plants. The company will also focus on offering more environmentally-friendly packaging and aims to increase the percentage of recycled HDPE in its Infini bottle range to 50% by 2020. The company may also benefit from the opening of a major new dairy by Graham's The Family Dairy, close to...
