Abstracts

Although there was a slight slowdown in growth of nappies/diapers/pants sales in Asia Pacific in 2020, Coronavirus (COVID-19) did not have as big an impact on these products as many others in the region. Given they are seen as essential products by many parents, they were reluctant, if possible, to stop buying them, albeit perhaps trading down to lower-priced products given the economic impact of the pandemic. Strong annual growth rates are expected from 2021.
