Abstracts

Demand for nappies/diapers/pants in Slovakia was negatively affected by rising prices and lower birth rates in the country, which resulted in retail volume decline in 2023. Some consumers chose to make products last longer and made fewer purchases to economise. However, in line with rising price points, current value growth stayed in the high single-digits. Value sales also benefited from wealthier consumers increasing demand for eco-friendly and higher-quality products, with some parents wantin...
