Abstracts

In 2023, nappies/diapers/pants in North Macedonia is under pressure from declining retail volume growth. The falling birth rate is directly influencing sales, as fewer babies are born in the country. The migration of younger adults is also an issue as they will often choose to live and start a family abroad. While inflation negatively impacted consumer confidence in 2023, rising unit prices helped the category achieve positive retail value growth.

Euromonitor International's Nappies/Diapers/Pants in North Macedonia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
