Abstracts

After the increase of the bank's stock capital in spring 2014, its strategic goals focus on the increase of gross lending in attractive local business sectors, improving the group's operational functionality via rescheduling its procedures, optimising its central and administrative functions, and the effective handling of NPLs through the recently established "special management loans unit" with the aim of supporting viable businesses. The bank hopes that in 2014, 2015 and 2016 its operational...
