Abstracts

Growing consumer concerns over the environment and health have coincided with the industry's rising focus on more sustainable sourcing to generate significant levels of interest in all things natural. As a result, there are now significant opportunities for natural ingredients in all fmcg markets. This report looks at the issues impacting natural ingredient supply and demand, and assesses the opportunities that exist for natural products in various key ingredient categories.

Euromonitor International's Natural Ingredients: A Sustained Push for Sustainable Options global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the Ingredients market at an international level. It highlights the major drivers behind ingredient supply and demand, provides detailed analysis of the individual ingredient categories and the product categories they are used in. It also examines regional prospects, highlighting opportunities and challenges in ingredient usage.
