Abstracts

Latin America is a region rich in natural resources from food and water to oil, gas and renewable energies. The region relies heavily on these resources as a driver of economic growth, with agriculture and energy playing a central role in the economy. Population growth, middle class expansion and climate change have put immense pressure on these resources. There are opportunities for companies offering solutions for more sustainable use of resources, especially energy and water.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
