Abstracts

In 2021, naturally healthy beverages posted slower current value growth in comparison to 2020. This comes after a year of high growth in 2020 when naturally healthy beverages performed very well. Naturally healthy beverages were already becoming more and more popular before the pandemic, but it notably intensified after the emergence of COVID-19. Indeed, as a result of the pandemic, consumers are becoming increasingly focused on consumption that is good for them, and avoiding products that may j...
