Abstracts

The soft drinks space looked set to continue to drive the decline of naturally healthy beverages in 2021. This can be explained by the weight of naturally healthy bottled water and naturally healthy superfruit juice, two of the largest segments in overall naturally healthy beverages. Both categories continued to suffer from a broader consumer trend away from plastic packaging during the year. Furthermore, naturally healthy bottled water, in particular, suffered from the loss of on-the-go consump...
