Abstracts

NH 100% juice recorded declining volume and value sales again during 2021, although the category registered a less negative performance than what was seen at the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic during 2020. Among the major factors presenting challenges to the category are the high prices charged for these products in comparison with other types of soft drinks, which means that demand is largely confined to affluent middle-income and high-income consumers. In addition, there is relatively low aware...
