Abstracts

The emergence of the pandemic changed the daily lives of many Germans. Most of them had to spend prolonged time at home, often limited in their leisure activities outside of the house and an increasing number of employees encouraged to work remotely. In addition, many children had to stay at home for several months during 2020 and 2021 due to the closure of schools, resulting in greater consumption occasions in the home. This also encouraged increasing numbers of consumers to cook from scratch d...
