Abstracts

In 2021, naturally healthy (NH) packaged food posted a decline in retail current value terms, mainly due to a strong backlash from 2020. Driven by home seclusion in 2020, many NH packaged food products saw a sharp sales increase, namely NH high fibre pasta, NH high fibre breakfast cereals and NH honey, and this could not be maintained.

Euromonitor International's Naturally Healthy Packaged Food in Japan report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2016-2020, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2025 illustrate how the market is set to change.
