Abstracts

In 2021, NH packaged food will continue to perform well due to the health and wellness trend that is gathering pace because of the COVID-19 pandemic, which has seen more consumers pay greater attention to their overall health. NH products have been around for quite some time in Poland, but in recent years, the products have gained even more attention. One of the only obstacles to these products is the slightly off-putting taste consumers find healthier products to have such as whole grain pasta...
