Abstracts

Naturally healthy is facing competition from other health and wellness segments and in 2021, it registered a decline in current value and volume sales. However, this was after from a particularly strong trading year in 2020. Health labels such as free from preservatives and free from additives are increasingly seen as healthier than packaged foods that are naturally healthy.

Euromonitor International's Naturally Healthy Packaged Food in Slovakia report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector.
