Abstracts

As a snack bar is perceived as an instant breakfast option that suits busy lifestyles among Thai consumers, the demand for NH cereal bars was negatively impacted by the measures to stem the tide of the virus in the country, not least lockdown and work-from-home policies. A consumers stayed at home for longer periods and had more time to cook a full meal from scratch or make a snack at home when required during the day, they were less inclined to consume a snack bar on the go. High-protein NH cer...
