Abstracts

This briefing highlights the newest concepts in fashion retailing around the world. As hyperconnected consumers disregard the conventions of traditional retail, fashion players are increasingly looking to experiential shopping and personalisation to attract consumers' attention. Furthermore, digital retailers are venturing into the physical realm in an effort to unify online and offline, as seamless transition across multiple channels and devices becomes the holy grail of fashion retailing.

Euromonitor International's New Concepts in Fashion Retailing global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the apparel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the clothing and footwear market - be they changes on the supply side, in channel dynamics, economic/ lifestyle /demographic influences or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Apparel, Footwear, Sportswear.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
