Abstracts

NG Restaurants will continue to expand its portfolio over the forecast period with a view towards becoming the leading consumer foodservice company in Peru. This portfolio already includes a number of well-known brands with outlets across the country. The company's CEO, who took up this position in June 2016 after leading another business belonging to the same corporate group, has announced plans to significantly increase outlet numbers and double value sales within a 5-year period. The company...
