Abstracts

In 2022, though there was healthy growth in current value sales, constant value sales fell. The war in Ukraine had a negative impact, with the resultant energy crisis leading to soaring inflation and dampening volume sales. With such economic uncertainty following on from the upheaval of the pandemic, there was limited store openings. With such hefty price rises, consumers focused on essentials. As a result, one of the worst performing channels was beauty specialists.

Euromonitor International's Non-Grocery Retailers in North Macedonia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Apparel and Footwear Specialists, Appliances and Electronics Specialists, General Merchandise Stores, Health and Beauty Specialists, Home Products Specialists, Leisure and Personal Goods Specialists, Other Non-Grocery Retailers.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
